Acknowledgements

I would like to express my respectful gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Kousoulis Panagiotis. Without his encouragement, guidance, mentoring, knowledge, careful supervision and assistance this thesis would not have been completed. Also, I would also like to thank the other members of the committee: Dr. Nikos Kopanias and Dr. Stefanakis. Their insight, feedback and advice was essential during the writing process. I am also grateful to Dr. Kara Cooney and Mrs. Severance Piper from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) for making this study possible by providing me with photographic material. I am also thankful to Dr. Christoph Uehlinger from the University of Zurich for sending me his book and I would never have been accomplished my research without his help.

Most special thanks goes to my best friend and PhD Candidate in Egyptology at the University of the Aegean, Department of Mediterranean Studies, Grigoris Kontopoulos, for introducing the great world of Egyptology and his contribution to this research by giving me his advice and encouragement.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge with gratitude, the support and love of my family throughout this long process.
